

I Left...Because I Love You

Sammie

I know you gon' hate me after I say this Cause you ain't way too deep in this too late shit
But baby I ain't ready for relation
I'm afraid of commitment girl I'm chasing
But that don't change what we build and what we had, no
But you ain't tryna hear that

Girl, I left because I love you
I ain't good at love, I ain't good at love no
So I left because I love you
One girl ain't much that'll never be enough no
And I left because I love you
I ain't good at love, I ain't good at love no
Girl, I left because I love you
One girl ain't much that'll never be enough no
Girl, I left because I loved you
Girl, I left because I love you

You ain't gon' like me if I stay around
Your paps and your brother gon' wanna fight me if I stay around
You gon' be dissapointed when I let you down
And I love you way too much to watch you settle now
You love my potential, girl I can live up to that You love my potential, girl I can amount to that

Girl, I left because I love you
I ain't good at love, I ain't good at love no
So I left because I love you
One girl ain't much that'll never be enough no
And I left because I love you
I ain't good at love, I ain't good at love no
Girl, I left because I love you
One girl ain't much that'll never be enough no
Girl, I left because I loved you
Girl, I left because I love you

I know you can see it baby, when you look at me but Looks they do the save so I need you to believe that I ain't he re
No, I ain't your king, no, I ain't your diamond in the rough
I ain't your gem, no, I ain't your gem
I left because I love you
