

Louisiana Hot Sauce

Sammy Kershaw

Little Susanna, down in Louisiana
Pretty as she can be
All the boys want her, they even say she's gonna
But she don't want nobody but me

Now I'm a lucky fellow, 'cause they all try to tell her
Girl you better leave him alone
But none of them can see, what she sees in me
She loves me way down to the bone

She'll sit around and tease 'em
Tell 'em she can please 'em
But I know that she's taking me home

Well, well, well, she's Louisiana hot sauce
Hotter than a fireball smoother than strawberry wine
She's lookin' good as I've seen
Strollin' in her tight jeans, drivin' me out of my mind
Believe me there's no other that comes in up above her
She knocks me right down to my knees

Well I know I could never have it any better
She spins me like a washing machine
And every time I hold her, man I start to smolder
When she pours her lovin' on me
She's Louisiana hot sauce

Well, well, well, she's Louisiana hot sauce
Hotter than a fireball smoother than strawberry wine
She's lookin' good as I've seen
Strollin' in her tight jeans drivin' me out of my mind
Believe me there's no other that comes in up above her
She knocks me right down to my knees

I know I could never have it any better
She spins me like a washing machine
And every time I hold her, man I start to smolder
When she pours her lovin' on me

Well, well, well, she's Louisiana hot sauce
Hotter than a fireball smoother than strawberry wine
She's lookin' good as I've seen
Strollin' in her tight jeans, drivin' me out of my mind
Believe me there's no other that comes in up above her
She knocks me right down to my knees

I know I could never have it any better
She spins me like a washing machine
And every time I hold her, man I start to smolder
When she pours her lovin' on me
She's Louisiana hot sauce, Louisiana hot sauce
