

When Two Become One

Sarah Connor

Hey honey
It's been sometime
Since you just came into my life
And boy without a doubt
You turned me inside out
Sweet baby
It's been a while
Since people doubted our love and claimed
That we were much too loud
And press was what we're about

But we smiled into ourselves and knew
That I was meant to be with you
And you were made for me
Obviously

So with a little touch from you
And a little hug from me
We showed the world love is strong
When two become one
So with a little smile from you
And a little kiss from me
We can go anywhere at anytime
And be what we wanna be
All fear is gone when two become one

My darling
It's been alright
To stay together side by side
We've been through thick and thin
We knew that we could only win
Oho sugar
A boy, a girl
Just start to build up their own world
With him she's feeling strong
With her he can't go wrong

We smiled into ourselves, it's true
That I was meant to stay with you
And you will be with me
Eternally

So with a little touch from you
And a little hug from me
We showed the world love is strong
When two become one
So with a little smile from you
And a little kiss from me
We can go anywhere at anytime
And be what we wanna be
All fear is gone when two become one

This song is for you my love
For your endless dedication
In the sleepless nights I caused
For the sweetness of your patience
I love the way you love to hold me

In the warmth of your embrace
Curled up in your arms at night
Baby that's my favorite place

So with a little touch from you
And a little hug from me
We showed the world love is strong
When two become one
So with a little smile from you
And a little kiss from me
We can go anywhere at anytime
And be what we wanna be
All fear is gone when two become one

Our love is strong
When two become one
There's nothing wrong
When two
