

Anchor

Sarah Darling

Before I drink my coffee and read the news on the front page
Before I'm beaten down by one of life's ways
I wake up next to you
We just lie there
We just breath
These little moments are all I need
To keep me sailing through my day

And it don't seem like a lot but it's the best thing that I've got

I don't know where I would be
Maybe shipwrecked out at sea
In a world that's always spinning me
You're my anchor

We plot our courses by the stars
Sometimes we just don't get that far

But that's alright by me
Cause I'm not scared like I was before
Cause when you're with me I can always see the shore
Like a lighthouse in the night you keep on shining

I don't know where I would be
Maybe shipwrecked out at sea
In a world that's always spinning me
You're my anchor

And I hope I would do the same
If the tide ever pulls you away

I don't know where I would be
Maybe shipwrecked out at sea
In a world that's always spinning me
You're my anchor
