

We Won't Obey

Scars on Broadway

Buying, you're all buying
All the things you're danying
Sick of all this nothingness, everything is meaningless
All your laughs end in sighing

Feeding on your empty brain, everything is just a game
Lying, you're all lying
Ignorance should be a crime
All religions stand in line

Fighting, you're all fighting
If you know what is to be
Why didn't you predict me?

Crying, you're all crying
So masturbate me, entertain me

We won't obey
You'll never get your way
We will always have our say

Leave us alone
Leave our world alone
We can stand up on our own

Buying, you're all buying
All the things you're danying
Sick of all this nothingness, everything is meaningless
All your laughs end in sighing

Feeding on your empty brain, everything is just a game
Lying, you're all lying
Ignorance should be a crime
All religions stand in line

Fighting, you're all fighting
So masturbate me, entertain me

We won't obey
You'll never get your way
We will always have our say

Leave us alone
Leave our world alone
We can stand up on our own

(fight, fight)
Fighting, all your institutions
(fight, fight)
Starting a revolution

(fight, fight)
Fighting, all your institutions
(fight, fight)
Starting a revolution

(fight, fight)

Fighting, all your institutions
(fight, fight)
Starting a revolution

So masturbate me, entertain me
We won't obey
You'll never get your way
We will always have our say

Leave us alone
Leave our world alone
We won't obey
