

Goes Without Saying

Scary Kids Scaring Kids

We both know you want it, come and get it.
What you waiting for?
Now you're scared of what you're seeing,
only seen it in your dreams before.
Cause when you least expect it,
it will take you, take you by surprise.
So take advantage, take it all,
take it all before the moment dies.

It comes without saying,
It's already known.
It's written all over you,

It comes without saying.
Don't let it go,
keep it inside of you.

It comes without saying...

Now that you've got it in,
it's slipping through your finger tips.
You gave and let go;
now it's missing from your life again.
So now you're tearing up the walls,
make a mess, try to dig it up.
But now it's all too late, you'll never find it,
and the moment's dead, the moment's dead.

It goes without saying,
It's already gone.
It's written all over you,

It goes without saying.
You let it go,
There's nothing inside of you.

It goes without saying...

We know you want it.
What are you waiting for?
Take it all and the moment dies.

It goes without saying,
goes without saying.
It's written all over you.

It goes without saying,
goes without saying.
Just keep it inside of you.

It goes without saying,
goes without saying.
It's written all over you.

It goes without saying,
goes without saying.
There's nothing inside of you.

It goes without saying...
