F
R: Ten o'clock postman

Dm
Bring me her letter

B
Ten o'clock postman

C
Make me feel better

F
Been so many days

Dm
Since that I've met her

Ten o'clock postman

C
Bring me her letter

B C F
Bring me her letter

F
1. I'm walking all over the room

Dm
Wonder why I don't stop biting my nails

Why carry this feeling of doom

A couple more hours and I'll get the mail

I'll get the mail

F
Finding it so hard to eat

Dm
The toast and the eggs they just don't taste the same

Hearing a noise in the street

B Bm/Db
I run to the window and cry out in vain

R:

2. Remembering that she said for sure
I'll write you the minute I'll get off the plane
Nothing, not one single word
It must come this morning or I'll go insane
I'll go insane

Now it's been almost five days
Could she have sent it by air or by rail
I hear someone's comin' this way

B C
This must be it, yes it must be the mail
