

Victim Of War

Seelenkrank

I'm looking out of my window
What do I see?
The world is falling down
What can I do?
I have no power to make a change
I'm trapped in my room
I just can watch the damage of it all
People running around, killing themselves
Suffer from fear
You can be the next one

I'm walking over dead bodies
Streets of blood
One body is you
It's too late to cry
They met you between the eyes
No chance to escape
You're a victim of war
