

Good In You

Seinabo Sey

Just as I
Thought that it was time to say goodbye
I see you in the corner of my eye
Smiling like you'll never say goodbye
Can barely hold your gaze and I'm not shy
The words escape me as you pass on by
So graciously I told him of the glitter in his eye

And he said, "It's your reflection, darling"
And he said, "It's your reflection, baby"

I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
What's your name for can I call you mine?
All I want is a moment of your time
'Cuz I see the good in you
Do you see it too?

Simple but I
Can't organize my thoughts
You make them fly
Feeling like I've never see the sky
Feeling like I've never see the sky
The colors blue and light like crystal I
Hope that you can read what's on my mind
Simple but I
Told him of the glitter in his eye

Then he said, "It's your reflection, darling"
Then he said, "It's your reflection, babe"

I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
What's your name, or can I call you mine?
All I want is a moment of your time
'Cuz I see the good in you
Will you see it too?

Is that your skin or mine?
Is that your heart of mine?
I won't be running out of time
I won't be running out of time
'Cuz with you I'm forever
You I'm forever, babe
'Cuz with you I'm forever
Yeah, with you I'm forever
With you I'm forever

I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
What's your name, or can I call you mine?

All I want is a moment of your time
'Cause I see the good in you
Do you see it too?
