Es As B Es

1. Once in a while I see your smile

Es As F B

Brightening an unfamilliar face

Es As Gmi Cmi As

And out of the crowd I hear the trace of your voice

B Es

Every once in while.

2. It might be a shaft of the morning light Soft as a shadow at my side And my blood rises at my side Every once in a while.

Cmi B

R: The memory lives

Es As Es Cmi F B

and memory gives you to me through tears and smiles $\ensuremath{\mathsf{S}}$

Es As Gmi Cmi

I'm thankful through the yers and smiles

As

That you'r mine.

B Es

Every once in a while.

3. Many of years go passing by When you never cross my weary mind Then just like a gift I suddenly find you there Every once in a while.