```
We are driving crazy on your sofa
We are like two madams after a dose of nirvana
We were flying so high that couldn't catch sight of your mother
And she said that I was a bitch
Mother Lyuba, let's go, let's go, let's go
Our bed makes sound like hiss-hiss
I'm your piano, you are my tuner
We were flying so high that couldn't catch sight of your mother
And she said that I was a bitch
Mother Lyuba, let's go, let's go, let's go
```
