

Inferno

Shakra

I crossed the border, I saw the light
I tried to reach it but then I failed
I have to stay here to pay my dues
Am I forgotten and lost in a ruse?

Why can't you see me?
I am next to you!
Why can't you feel me?
I am touching you!

Take my hand
Show me the Promised Land
Let me take a look
But don't let me lose ground
Take my hand
Show me the Promised Land
Just as visitor
And not as resident of Inferno

The penitent road I had to cross
Facing all my sins, my whole life's loss
No peace of heaven, just god damned heat
Heart-piercing cries spread the darkest seed

Why can't you see me?
I am next to you!
Why can't you feel me?
I am touching you!

Take my hand
Show me the Promised Land
Let me take a look
But don't let me lose ground
Take my hand
Show me the Promised Land
Just as visitor
And not as resident of Inferno
