

Unspoken Truth

Shakra

Under the surface under the skin
Something is waiting to break out within
I am surrounded by loneliness
Drowning in sorrows it burdens my chest

Innocence is bleeding
Reality's deceiving

Trying real hard to forgive you
You've brought me hell I've been through
Unspoken things are revealing
I can't go back right now

Misuse of power was passing my way
Leftover anger is ruling my day
Couldn't relate to I was so young
I am so burnt out can't carry on

Innocence is bleeding
Reality's deceiving

Trying real hard to forgive you
You've brought me hell I've been through
Unspoken things are revealing
I can't go back right now
