

Instead of Falling

Shapeshifters

Instead of falling in love
I just fall
Instead of falling in love
I just fall
Instead of falling in love
I just call
Your name to an empty  (air?) (ear?)
As you disappear

You never found the time to be my valentine
What's that all about
Is that we're inside-out or still all inside?
 (Each others minds?)
Cause you never made the time
To look into my eyes

You've been race and run?, now you leaving town
And my heart bleeds behind you as it falls back
Falls back into me

Inside of you a river has run dry
But you could never even tell me why
My love for you never  your mind
I wanted you to want me more
And the sun beat winter time?

Fall into your arms
Now I wonder why
We liquished? my heart
When you won't give
Won't give yours to me
