

I Don't Know You

Shawn Colvin

Is it me or is it you
Or just the spoils of our little war
You look just like you always do
But I don't know you anymore

Same time, same place
Same lips, same taste
And the sound of slamming doors
I hear your voice I see your face
But I don't know you...

You were soft and sweet like candy
Kisses warm and wet as rain
Now I'm looking through you baby
You're not the same

Was it real and was it new
Or just some lines you'd said before
I trace our steps I look for clues
But I don't know you anymore

Was it me you fell into
Or was it just the clothes I wore
Was it me or was it you
But I don't know you
