

Jump

SHINee

Why do you keep shaking me up and going, why do you mess up my mind, making me have butterflies for no reason
As if the fresh spring wind teases me, it brushes past by I waited for so long, I bloomed all the flowers, so why can't I
If I'm swept away by the wind then, now

I shake my head, brush it off and adjust my heart
I solidly protect my space again
Keep on enduring it, just close my eyes when it feels futile for no reason

Higher, rise higher Fly, there's the ground beneath your feet, when I travel between the two
Oh yes I feel the freedom, I jump on you, jump on you

Going going drops when it's falling like it's become raindrops
it's cool
The wind is a Roller coaster I jump on you, jump on you

I'm not falling, I'm not wilting, it's just changes
I turn different and keep going forward
Why is that hard, why did I hesitate for such a long time
Following my heart away from other people's eyes

I free the feet that were bound
I let my imagination loose after a long time
The wind is blowing, now I open my eyes and breathe in

Higher, rise higher Fly, there's the ground beneath your feet,
when I travel between the two

Going going drops when it's falling like it's become raindrops
it's cool
The wind is a Roller coaster I jump on you, jump on you

The perfect weather is so wasteful, it's sad that I'm doing this Happiness is always close, between a Do or a Don't

You got me got me jump
Got me got me jump, jump x2

Higher, rise higher Fly, there's the ground beneath your feet,
when I travel between the two

Going going drops when it's falling like it's become raindrops

it's cool

The wind is a Roller coaster I jump on you, jump on you
