

The Magic Is You

Shirley Bassey

Close...

When you're close I can hear violins
And the sound of a sweet mandolin

Touch...

When you touch me a new dream begins
And I'm half way through summer and spring

Suddenly there's magic in the air,
Time is all the magic that we share,
An unsuspecting feeling
Just for you and me.

No words can say exactly how I feel
'cause I'm not sure the one I see is real,
Well I guess the magic is you...

Love...

Fills my heart with each word that you say,
I'm so happy that you came our way

Suddenly there's magic in the air,
Our time is all the magic that we share,
An unsuspecting feeling
Just for you and me.

No words can say exactly how I feel
'cause I'm not sure the one I see is real,
Well I guess the magic is you...
The magic is you.

And suddenly there's magic in the air,
Our time is all the magic that we share,
An unsuspecting feeling
Just for you and me.

No words can say exactly how I feel
'cause I'm not sure the one I see is real,
Well I guess the magic is you...
The magic is you.

And suddenly there's magic in the air,
Our time is all the magic that we share,
An unsuspecting feeling
Just for you and me.
