Steady At The Wheel

Shooter Jennings

Well, I push my load across the land Livin' the life of a travelin' man Dusk brings down another day Gonna swallow up time and throw it away

Zero to sixty, she's the next big thing They tell me it's a steal Drive all night just to ease the pain Don't look away Stay steady at the wheel

You try to sing a familiar tune Howlin' the words under a bloodshot moon Blacklight troubadour, push on through As heartbreak sits right next to you

Zero to sixty, she's the next big thing They tell me it's a steal Drive all night just to ease the pain Don't look away Stay steady at the wheel
