

My Elusive Dreams

Skeeter Davis

You're my greatest weakness I love you so much
And I rise to paradise anytime we touch
You do something to me you and all your charms
Can resist the little kiss when I'm in your arms.

You're my weakness
My greatest weakness
There's more for sure but somehow
You're my greatest weakness yet.

You're my greatest weakness say you want me to
Don't know how I lived till now without loving you
I just go to pieces everytime you speak
Love me long and love me strong don't care if I'm weak.

You're my weakness
My greatest weakness
There's more for sure but somehow
You're my greatest weakness yet...
