

Forever or the End

Skillet

Tell me what you're thinking
So I don't have to pretend
'Cause you're 90 million miles away
I'm the song that goes on
Way beyond the ozone
You treat me like a stranger at the gates
Why you got to make it so hard
Why you gotta push me so far
Just another weekend
Where we are barely speaking
Hoping that the silence keeps us safe

How did I get here
Was it something I said
When you said forever
Is this what you meant
Is it wrong that I miss you
'Cause you never left
But the burden feels heavy
And I'm just so stumped
Is this forever or is this the end

It's better to be known here
Than to be alone here
Who will be the first to make a move
You got me on the [?] fast
'Cause just beyond my pretense
I'm afraid I'm disappointing you
I've still got some hope in my heart
But I don't even know where to start

How did I get here
Was it something I said
When you said forever
Is this what you meant
Is it wrong that I miss you
'Cause you never left
But the burden feels heavy
And I'm just so stumped
Is this forever or is this the end

It's never over
It's never over
It's never over
It's never over
It's not to late to start it all again
It's never over
It's never over
Let's start it over
Let's start it over

How did I get here
Was it something I said

How did I get here
Was it something I said
When you said forever
