

Carry This

Slick Shoes

When it all falls apart and I can be sure that it will
I need you to hold my heart
On my own I fail

But I will carry this as long as it is mine
I have learned the hard way that we cannot waste more time
I'm not going home until it's done

When I can't hear your voice and I start to lose the truth
I will not be torn apart
Hold me fast in you

I will carry this as long as it is mine
I have learned the hard way that we cannot waste more time
I'm not going home until it's done

Love and honor sacrifice
This is not a losing fight

I will carry this as long as it is mine
I will learn to love and honor every sacrifice
I'm not going home until it's done
