Jupiter's Lament

The Smashing Pumpkins

Gone, long gone Blink and I'll be gone, gone, gone Leave this world of wrong, wrong, wrong Leave it far behind

And although my secret's gone I'll try to carry on If I must, I'll get along Without you

Gone, long gone Leave this world of wrong, wrong, wrong Beyond the pale, beyond the dawn Flee these mortal bonds

No one knows I can't be wrong Still I sing the same old songs I tried to be strong For you

Why have you left me Amongst the tall trees? I know I gave her all I had

And I tied her heart in ribbons Tied her heart in ribbons Tied her heart in ribbons And bows

And I'm gone Oh yes, I'm gone

And I'm lost without you I'm lost within you And I'm gone So gone Long gone
