

Imperfect Me

Smokie Norful

For, so long I've tried
To figure out the reason why
You, used my life
As a sign and a guiding light

I'm a bird with one wing,
A song with no melody
But somehow I fly and sing because of how you see me

[Chorus:]

What do you know that I don't
And how do you hear, hear that sound in me
I say I'm lost
You say I'm free
How do you see the good in imperfect me

Oh, I realised
There are better things to do with your time and while there's people searching for you everywhere
Yet and still you find me sitting in my chair
Just to let me know I'm on your mind

Well I'm a bird with one wing,
A song with no melody
But somehow I fly and sing, because of how you see me

[Chorus:]

What do you know that I don't
and how do you hear, hear that sound in me
I say I'm lost
You say I'm free
How do you see the good in imperfect me

Hope my mistakes helping somebody that has lost their way
I hope that when I fall that someone learns from my mistakes
And calls on you
Is there anyway I can see me the way you see
Can you help me realise and make it clear
Why me

[Chorus:]

What do you know that I don't (Oh oh)
and how do you hear, hear that sound in me
I say I'm lost
You say I'm free
How do you see the good in imperfect me

(Oh oh)

What do you know that I don't (that I don't)
and how do you hear, hear that sound in me
I say I'm lost
You say I'm free
How do you see the good in imperfect me

So glad you see the good in imperfect me.
