

My Dreams Dictate My Reality

SoKo

Lost and found
I've lost my mind
'Cause my dreams dictate my reality
Rise and shine
I don't even know how to smile
I'm just trying to keep my sanity
And the vision gets blurry
And all I have is to worry
That I'm never gonna wake again
That I'm never gonna wake again

'Cause my dreams dictate my reality
My dreams reflect my insanity
And I'm as frightened as I could be
For no longer know what's reality

Do you really think this is just a dream?
For I don't see no elephants flying
No I don't hear no dolphins singing
I just hear people dying
I just hear people dying

'Cause my dreams dictate my reality
My dreams reflect my insanity
And I'm as frightened as I could be
For no longer know what's reality

I just hear people dying
I just hear people dying
I just hear people dying
Oh, I just hear people dying
