

Who Wears The Pants??

SoKo

Have you ever thought of being a man
Do you think it would ease your pain
Who could decide in your head that you're gonna rot in hell
Now who wears the pants
And who's gonna wet her plans
He's the woman
He's the man
Well you just gotta live to tell

You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you lost baby, yeah baby you lost
You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you want me to come back

You think of two voices
And two girls is some more sexy
You bring the eyes of God
No matter what
It's a disgrace
That's what I've got to say
So now who wears the pants
And how does it all make sense
Can it be love until you miss mother plans
Well you'll need to see it again

You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you lost baby, yeah baby you lost
You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you want me to come back

Now who wears the pants
And who's gonna wet her plans
He's the woman
He's the man
Well you just gotta live to tell

You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you lost baby, yeah baby you lost
You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you want me to come back
You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you lost baby, yeah baby you lost
You burned your bridges in the neon light
And you want me to come back
Oh you don't even need to come back
