

I Sit & Hide

Sophie Barker

I sit & hide
In this empty shell of mine
Cracking by the fire
Bound by you

And only time
Will make me understand
Why there's so few like you and me

Tonight I cried
For the first time
How weak you are
Not too shine
And as I fall into these empty arms
As I fall into these empty arms of you
Lost within this space
Only by what I think I know

It's not too late
To face all your fears
The winds are calling the rain
The rain is coming down

Fly with me
Won't you get high with me
Cos my mind is broken by
The unrequited sound of you

Tonight I cried
For the first time
How weak you are
Not too shine
And as I fall into these empty arms
And as I fall into these empty arms of you
Lost within this space
Only by what I think I know
I know
About what I think I know
I know
I know
I know
