

Everyday Hero

Souldrainer

There is a darkness all around
I don't like what I'm turning into, slave obey
There is pain inside. I don't like what it makes me do, slave obey

An impulse travels from my brain to my hand, a moment of hell,
not mine but yours
I will not bleed, nor die, cause I am alive

I cannot see what I've done to you but I'm ashamed of things I wish upon you
I won't disregard my list for your blood
I cannot... I will not, kill myself. I do not like your pain... pain

An impulse travels from my brain to my hand, a moment of hell,
not mine but yours
I will not bleed, nor die, cause I am alive

My hands are red, my mind is blank, your empty eyes stare at me in an awful accusing way Stop, please stop! You saw it coming, I told you, I fucking told you, there was one way out

I see the past, it's all dark with a clear trail of blood through time, slay again
I know the future of mine, I just can't shake the urge to kill, so slay again
