There is a darkness all around I don't like what I'm turning into, slave obey There is pain inside. I dont like what it makes me do, slave ob ey

An impulse travels from my brain to my hand, a moment of hell, not mine but yours

I will not bleed, nor die, cause I am alive

I cannot see what I´ve done to you bit I´m ashamed of things I wish upon you

I won't disregard my list for your blood

I cannot... I will not, kill myself. I do not like your pain... pain

An impulse travels from my brain to my hand, a moment of hell, not mine but yours

I will not bleed, nor die, cause I am alive

My hands are red, my mind is blandk, your empty eyes stair at m e in an aweful accusing way

Stop, please stop! You saw it coming, I told you, I fucking tol d you, there was one one way out

I see the past, it's all dark with a clear trail of vlood through time, slay again

I know the future of mine, I just can't shake the urge to kill, so slay again
