

They All Die

Souldrainer

Take my life and spare the ones that live in fear and yet are numb.

I fear for what they are.
I'm afraid for what I saw.
The pain in me keeps building up inside.

Pain and misery, I don't know.
Is it all worth it in the end?

They all die - When the armies arrive at dawn.
They all die - Creep up inside, eating their way out.
Kill me now - Please don't let them get to me.

The pain unleashed ...
Spreads darkness across the sky.

The pain unleashed ...
Brings forth the worst in man.

The pain unleashed ...
causes humans to fight within.

Oh please don't let them get to me.

Take my life and spare the ones that live in fear and yet are numb.
Use me as I was your own and cast some light upon their homes.
Break my bones and use my soul just leave them be please set them free.
Light the torch and spread the word that my prayer has been heard.
