

Death Bells

Soulsavers

Death bells are ringing, Lord
Ringing in my ears
Death bells keep ringing, ringing
Baby, can't you hear

Death bells are ringing, Lord
Ringing in my ears
Death bells keep ringing, ringing
Baby, can't you hear

No one to crawl one thousand hours
No one at all to grow my graveyard flower
And this useless drift is a drag
No medicine and no remedies
And it may be my blood is cursed
But I'm breathing under my brother's dirt

Angels are singing, Lord
Singing in my ears
Angels keep singing, baby
Baby, can't you hear

Angels are singing, Lord
Singing in my ears
Angels keep singing, baby
Baby, can't you hear

No one to crawl one thousand hours
No one at all to grow my graveyard flower
And this useless drift is a drag
No medicine and no remedies
And it may be my blood is cursed
But I'm breathing under my brother's dirt

There's no one to crawl one thousand hours
No one at all to grow my graveyard flower
And it may be my blood is cursed
But I'm breathing under my brother's dirt

Death bells are ringing, Lord
Ringing in my ears
Death bells keep ringing
Baby, can't you hear

Angels are singing, Lord
Singing in my ears
Death bells are ringing, Lord
Ringing in my ears

Death bells are ringing
Death bells are ringing, ringing
Ringing, ringing
