

Rolling Sky

Soulsavers

Is that somebody calling?
Perhaps my love so long ..forgotten
Now the snake wrapped around ..my arm
Has bared its teeth
Has done its harm

Rain rolling sky
Sing a broken lullabye
And the rose, paint it red
Because my love
It isn't dead
Isn't dead

Who has left the water ..running?
In suicidal waves it's coming
This sleepwalking prayer of ..mine
Is locked away
Its done its time

Dry the weeping eye
Send a crippled valentine
Because the noise in my head
Says my love it isn't dead
Isn't dead
