

Hard Road

Spiritual Beggars

I never had nothing
That make me feel so good
It lit up my mind
Just like I knew it would

So bitter sweet
But I got in too deep

On the hard road
I ride on the the hard road
Where I used to fly
It's a long way
Coming back
I've been so far away

I never had nothing
That make me feel so bad
Drowning in sorrow
Worse than I ever had
