

Never Goin' Back

Spiritualized

Should of been sold with a warning attached,
The way you danced baby I aint ever coming back,
Got me shaking baby got me losing control,
I can't shake you lucy, got your name right on my soul.

I aint ever going back,
I aint ever coming back,
I aint ever going home,
I aint ever coming good.

Gonna shake you baby, gonna spread it around,
Gonna jump the lights now, I aint never coming down,
Gonna take you baby gonna push me on my side,
I aint coming down baby now that were inside.

I aint ever going back,
I aint ever coming back,
I aint ever going home,
I aint ever coming good.

Should of been sold with a warning attached,
The way you danced baby I aint ever coming back,
Got me shaking baby got me losing control,
I can't shake you lucy, got your name right on my soul.

I aint ever going back,
I aint ever coming back,
I aint ever going home,
I aint ever coming good.

I aint ever coming back,
I aint ever coming good,
I aint ever coming back,
I aint ever coming good.
