Funny How It Goes

Squeeze

Like trying to knock down pins with marbles in my hand She wouldn't take a "Hi" from me the average man Funny what money can do to people
But she had a light that had sparked up her evil

Trying to chat up women who rate themselves so high Shouldn't be my subject but I felt like I should try Funny what drink can do for soldiers
Well she must be into men a little bit older

Funny how it goes
How money steals the show
And all her diamonds twinkle as she dances
And what's it got for me
Hung over in my tree
I saw the sun shine brightly from her

Trying to get her dancing was not an easy job

She made out like Houdini when I said: "Do you bop?"

Funny what rhythm does it kills me

Like champagne women only seem to spill me

Trying to get the picture I settled down to a drink When up came Cinderella so what was I to think Funny how these shoes fit a dragon Well she's like the sharks that you get in Manhattan

Funny how it goes
How money steals the show
And all her diamonds twinkle as she dances
And what's it got for me
Hung over in my tree
I saw the sun shine brightly from her
