

The Thing I Hate

Stabbing Westward

Lost in a world of doubt and insecurity.
Nothing that you hold sacred nothing you believe.
Your life is a contradiction while you thrive on manipulation.
I fight to just hold on to what I believe in.

I won't become the thing I hate...
I won't become the thing I hate...
I won't become the thing I hate...
I won't become you

You've treated me like I'm a worthless piece of shit.
You think your in control but you make me sick.
I want to watch you suffer.
The way that you made me suffer.

I want to fuck up everything you've ever loved.

But I won't become the thing I hate...
I won't become the thing I hate...
I won't become you.
