

Look Who's Talking Now

Star Fucking Hipsters

Chained to the cubile
Glued to the t.v. screen
Melting from toxic soap
And your broken teeth spit listerine

I'll fuck the world today
I'll fuck the world today
I will break everything and throw it all away

Sinking in a toxic pool
With swollen lips and bloody drool
Bloody blisters on your tongue
And tumors on your iron lung
If you navigate the space
The shore is lined with bio-waste
Another life of death
You feel until there's nothing left

Inside the eyes of children
I see the human greed
I see the birth of hate
I see the poison seed

I'll fuck the world today
I'll fuck the world today
I will take everything and throw it all away

Sinking in a toxic pool
With swollen lips and bloody drool
Bloody blisters on your tongue
And tumors on your iron lung
If you navigate the space
The shore is lined with bio-waste
Another life of death
Nothing left

I'll fuck the world today
I'll fuck the world today
I will take everything and throw it all away

I'll fuck the world today
I'll fuck the world today
I'll fuck the world today
I'll fuck the world today
