Can't See for Looking

Welcome back in town I hear that you are available did anybody tell you lately that you're delectable? everywhere I turn it seems like you are all I see I swear that we have total compatability What do I have to do to get you alone with me? It's written in the stars that I will always be with you I don't care whatever it takes whatever I have to do

You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking

I am your prime number the one that you need to, me I am the magic drink you never got to drink it's written in the stars that you will always be with me one word in your head baby confidentially

You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking

Unlock your freezing door 'cos I can't stand the heat we should be walking on the bright side of the street it's written in the stars that I will always be with you I don't care whatever it takes whatever I have to do

You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking

You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking You just can't see for looking
