

Just By Being You (Halo And Wings)

Steel Magnolia

Let's run away,
Where nothing stands between me and you
Let's find a place somewhere a little closer to the truth,
And call it a home
Where there is no right and there's no wrong
And we can be all alone

And I'll take off my halo, if you take off your wings
You don't have to be invincible cause I sure ain't no saint
You'll always be my angel no matter what you do
Cause you take me to heaven just by being you.

Tell me a secret
Tell me things that no one else should know
Even in your weakness
Baby drop your guard, just let it go
Until everything's exposed
And you don't have to feel ashamed
Baby, just say my name (ohh)

And I'll take off my halo, if you take off your wings
You don't have to be invincible cause I sure ain't no saint
You'll always be my angel no matter what you do
Cause you take me to heaven just by being you.

When I see you standing there
You know it all becomes so clear
The way you look, the way you talk
I need the way you lift me up
This will never feel complete
Until there's nothing in between
And we have broke down every wall
Baby baby baby let's just fall

And I'll take off my halo
Yeah, and I'll take off my wings
You don't have to be invincible cause I sure ain't no saint
You'll always be my angel no matter what you do
Cause you take me to heaven
Just by being you
Ohh, you take me to heaven
Just by being you

Let's run away
Let's run away
