

Fight, Kill

Steel Prophet

Fight... Urge to kill... Fight... Urge to kill
Bad break hits my face, 10.000 times or more
Where can I turn, where can I be, since that day, free nevermore
The rage inside, they mock my beliefs
The world is haters who never change, don't give a chance to a guy like me
They rule like it's right, to push us down, I won't be broken
I'll fight with peace and love, arise above

Fight... Urge to kill... Fight... Urge to kill
Blood of the nation
Fight... Urge to kill...
Black hate deep within your heart
Fight... Urge to kill...
Re-incarnation
Fight... Urge to kill

Have you ever been at war with yourself?
Brain says choose well, consider the good
But emotions are ugly and hate in your heart
You know truth and beauty deep is your fate
Must turn away from it when blind hate comes to start?
Weapons of words, loaded with bullets of truth
Black, white and blue, which one is coming for you?
Pray to the gods, don't dishonor your name
We're all the same

Fortune was told, I'd never grow old, for crimes I commit
Hag laughed as my cards were read
"Hell's cold for you and certain she said"...

Fight... Urge to kill... Fight... Urge to kill
Blood of the nation
Fight... Urge to kill...
Black hate deep within your heart
Fight... Urge to kill...
Re-incarnation
Fight... Urge to kill
