

Lucifer / The Devil Inside

Steel Prophet

Once upon a time in the land before
Crucifixion was the sign of the war
The cross burned so bright, you smell the fright
The cowards in hoods roamed as kings

Lies! The cross is in season, and fear is the reason
The devil, the devil inside
You think you hold power, the weak you devour
The devil, the devil inside

When truth is the lie, and gain all you want
Can you find truth in your soul?
The twist of the words, the love of the hate
You know you are false, and you losing control

Lies?
The cross is in season, and fear is the reason
The devil, the devil inside
You think you hold power, the weak you devour
The devil, the devil inside

You'll burn in your fire, you fool
You liar, you die in hate's hole
The heart of the matter
Fairy tales shatter, reflect the ogre

Lies!
The cross is in season, and fear is the reason
The devil, the devil inside
Oooooooh!
