

Thrashed Relentlessly

Steel Prophet

The pursuit of perfection drives
I won't give up while I'm alive
You better just stay out my way
Failure is just a word
I never fear they draw the line
Whatever goal I choose, I will find
The fire burns inside me
You know you feel it
You know it's true
We gotta win no matter
Win with you!

Thrashing, smashing relentlessly
Burnt the ground endlessly
Thrashing, smashing relentlessly
Countdown to execution

You're running out of time
The toll you're sure to pay
The crown of Judas comes
The thorns will bleed their way
Your dreams of hate and fear
For all will never pass
The will of those who care
Will have the final say

They say it will never be
You're just some punk, a wannabe
Your dream is just illusion wait and see
But we win big, now you know

They say it will never be
You're just some punk, a wannabe
Your dream is just illusion wait and see
But we win big, now you know

You're the loser, you're the foe
I'm on the high road, you, you're on the low
Thrashing, smashing relentlessly
Burnt the ground endlessly
Thrashing, smashing relentlessly
Countdown to execution

You're running out of time
The toll you're sure to pay
The crown of Judas comes
The thorns will bleed their way
Your dreams of hate and fear
For all will never pass
The will of those who care
Will have the final say
