Vengeance Attained

Steel Prophet

Your story starts so bitterly An act no one should see I hear your tale unfold It makes my blood run cold The dark side of the human race Makes me sick, spits in our face The filth pollutes our minds I crave relief from these ties that bind

As you speak I form a plan Of just revenge upon this man I'll make him pay for all to see He'll suffer much until he's set free

In a flash it all comes clear Disease is passed from him to me Thirst for revenge builds in me I shake with rage vengeance we'll see

Avenger-that's what I am I know the dark in you Avenger-I exact the price A price that's paid in pain Hero-To the weak Evil's sworn enemy Avenger-you'll pay what's due you'll never get away!

Your debt has been paid, but what have I lost myself Punishing the evil, what's changed in me

Bloodthirsty soul, have I become, I don't trust myself Vengeance is mine so sayeth the lord, God strike my poor soul d own

the lord, god strike my poor soul down
