

Just Like You

Stellar Kart

It's just like me to hide away
When I'm ashamed from you
It's just like me to shift the blame
And try to change the truth
I can always justify
Every little compromise
Even when I know it hurts your heart
And though you see
It's just like me

It's just like you
To always be faithful
When I can be hateful and cruel
It's just like you
To only keep loving me
You won't give up if I do
When I'm a traitor, a faker
A doubter, a failure
You remain so true
It's just like you

It's just like me
To still forget the promises you made
Worried that you're far away
When I'm standing face to face
With the things that hurt my heart
Unbelief is just like me but

You are always reminding me
You are living this life with me
You are constantly changing me
Everything I want to be
Is just like you

To always be faithful
And live like there's nothing to lose
Just like you
To only keep loving
And never give up on what's true
No longer a traitor, a faker
A doubter, a failure
I am living proof
You made a friend and a fighter
You saved my life
You make all things new
It's just like you
