

Starlight in your eye might cause a meltdown
Sitting duck you're really lucky
To be faithless if you're honest with yourself
Its bound to haunt you it's bound to want you
To walk a fine line and work against you
And when it happens you'll know about it
Be undone
Be undone
You can be sure of that
Be undone
Be undone
You can be sure of that
Hold to ways you know
Too much for some
Or not enough for one another to be
Binding or to be certain of yourself
Its bound to haunt you
Its bound to want you
To walk a fine line and work against you
And when it happens you'll know about it
Take all your time
You could take it easy
You could make it easy
Be undone
