

French Postcards

Stephen Bishop

They never pick the
Miss America you think should win
And here in Paris
It's a million miles
From Disneyland

Chevalier said
Yes I remember it well
Do you think
He left out something
That he wouldn't tell?

I took the metro underground
Down to St. Germain
Saw a Venus in Blue Jeans
Who stole my heart

And I get weird
Then I get a little jealous
To see the girls kiss on the Seine
With their fellas
And I just want someone
To hold me
And never let me go

French Postcards
Lying in a hallway
Lacy Ladies
Smile voulez-vous
French Postcards
When can I send one to you

I took a taxi
To the Louvre
And yelled Lafayette we're here
Until a tourist said so what?

And all my fears
Have started dividing into clubs
And the girl I want for a member
Doesn't even know
I want her in

French Postcards
Don't know how I found them
Lacy Ladies
Smile voulez-vous
French Postcards
When can I send one to you?