

One In A Million Girl

Stephen Bishop

Woke up late
Got to the dance
I heard some fella say
Women love romance
So many faces
I can't count them all

Casanovas
Girls from the beach
Dance to the music
Kickin' up their feet
A lonely heartbeat
With no destiny

Is that girl in my eyes the one I see?
Is she looking at the moon, is she looking at me?
She's out of this world, oh
Oh, oh

She is a one in a million girl
She is a one in a million girl

I call her "checkers"
And that's the truth
She wants to jump
If a boy makes the wrong move
My only invitation's
The heart on my sleeve

You want a John Doe?
Or someone strong?
All those guys with that
Wine, women and so long
I'll treat you right
I'll give you something real

Well, if I tell you that I love you, that's no guarantee
What if I tell you you're the ticket to just what I need
Right out of this world, oh
Oh, oh

She is a one in a million girl
She is a one in a million girl

It sounds so funny 'cause I know that she's mine
Now we're together almost all of the time

She is a one in a million girl
She is a one in a million girl
She is a one in a million
She is a one in a million
She is a one in a million
She is a one in a million girl
