

LIES

Steve Aoki

Come home late
It seems you barely beat the sun
Tap my shoulder
Begging you gon' get you some
Smelling like some fragrance
That I don't even wear
So if you want some loving
I suggest you go back there

Lies ain't working now, now

Working, working now
Lies ain't working now

Come home late
It seems you barely beat the sun
Tap my shoulder
Begging you gon' get you some
Smelling like some fragrance
That I don't even wear
So if you want some loving
I suggest you go back there

Lies ain't working now, now

Working, working now
Lies ain't working now
