

Angel Eyes

Steve Perry

(Angel eyes)
You're my angel, angel (Angel eyes)

After you left, you made her cry
That's when she called me, called me
It won't be long, she will, she'll be mine
She called me, yes, she called me
Oh, I miss you girl

I was told there was a love affair
And you mistook me for just a friend
Though, I never made you cry
But late at night, you still believe his lullabies, his lulllullabies

After you left, you made her cry
That's when she called me, called me
It won't be long, she will, she'll be mine
She called me, yes, she called me

After all your heartache, why are you still with him?
You should know by now, girl, after everything that you've been through
You don't want nobody talking like he did
Every time you walk away, you know the games he plays
I only wanna say, I still miss you, girl

You're my (Angel eyes)
You're my angel, angel (Angel eyes)

After you left, you made her cry
That's when she called me, yes, she called me
And I missed you, girl
After you left (Angel eyes) you made her cry (Angel eyes)

She will be mine
She will be mine
