Until

'Til I give you up 'Til you give in Stop the car Turn off the engine Wake up at night with a pounding heart 'Til you go down Loose your head Stop unconscious From your bed Until you walk from bar to bar Until Until you're scourged Until you're snared Reminded by the clothes you wear Galled and sticky with desire 'Til any touch Is hard to bare 'Til nothing counts 'Til you don't care Until your only thought is 'why'? Until you bleed Until you cry Until you hurt as much as I Until 'until' electrifies Your ragged face Your sleepless eyes
