

Divider

Stryper

You work hard to bring me down
Disregard good that I have found
Take your negativity away

I'm on guard and watching you
I'm diehard with everything I do
A fighter in every way

Hey hey, outsider!
Hey hey, divider!

There you are without reason
From afar committing treason
There's nothing you'd do or say

To make me lose my vision
I've made my choice, my decision
All your lies won't make me sway

Hey hey, outsider!
Hey hey, divider!
